

CANADIAN PROFESSIONAL RODEO ASSOCIATION

2022 Cowboy of the Year Award

Nominations are now being accepted for the Cowboy of the Year Award.

Written nominations for Cowboy of the Year must be received by the C.P.R.A. no later than October 7th, 2022. The nominations should be as detailed as possible, establishing how the candidate has performed in each of the five categories. Only those candidates for whom a written nomination has been received shall be considered by the selection committee. In addition, electronic copies of pictures are also appreciated to support the nomination as these will assist in creation of the presentation for the winner.

- d. Appearance
 - i. Do they add to, rather than detract from, the production of a rodeo?
 - ii. Do they follow the rules with respect to dress at a rodeo?
 - iii. Is his appearance a credit to the sport, and its image?
- e. Contributions to the betterment of rodeo - in what ways have they worked to improve rodeo:
 - i. Promotion
 - 1. Have they always been co-operative with and available to the press?
 - 2. Have they willingly made appearances, given speeches and interviews, gone to schools etc., without a view to making a profit but to help rodeo?
 - ii. Development of the sport
 - 1. Have they served on the Board, or committees, or carried out special projects beyond what is normally required of a member?
 - 2. Have they worked toward developing programs or sponsors for the sport generally, not just for themselves?
 - 3. Have they had constructive suggestions for the improvement of the sport, and carried through on these?
 - 4. Have they done their share of judging, when needed, or taken part in clinics, or acted as a spokesman when needed?
 - 5. Have they consistently had the interests of the C.P.R.A. as a priority — finding trophy donors, seeking new ways to get exposure for rodeo, and helping new fans?
 - 6. Have they, in short, extended themselves for the good of rodeo, without consideration of immediate rewards or gain?
 - 7. Have they been a consistent ambassador for rodeo?
